INTERNAL/EXTERNAL JOB POSTING

Position: Transition House Worker
Location: Salt Spring Transition House
Nature of Position: Casual, On Call
Hours and Schedule: Varied Hours – daytime, evening and overnight shifts
Wage Rate: HSA Grid 10 Transition House Worker

This position requires union membership

Qualifications:
- Diploma in a related human/social service field.
- Sound knowledge and understanding in the area of violence against women and children.

Training and Experience:
- Minimum (1) one-year recent related experience. Or, an equivalent combination of education, training and experience.

Island Women Against Violence is a non-profit society dedicated to supporting women and their children in the Southern Gulf Islands whose lives have been affected by violence and abuse.

The transition house worker’s role is to provide support, security, advocacy, information, education, crisis intervention and referrals to residents and crisis line callers, which includes a range of non-judgemental practical and emotional support services to women and their children.

For a complete job description, please email thcoordinator@iwav.org or visit our website www.iwav.org

Note: it may take a few days for this posting to be on our website.

Resumes will be accepted until 4 pm on Friday March 6, 2020  email: Transition House Manager at thcoordinator@iwav.org or fax at 250-537-0736

Funded by the BC Ministry of Justice and BC Housing